HCIM's New Corporate Website and Blog!

HealthCare Information Management, Inc. (HCIM) proudly announces the debut of its new corporate website & blog.

HCIM's website was redesigned with more content, a better layout, and additional functionality. The website includes HCIM's new interactive corporate blog, which gives readers instant access to information in categories such as HCIM News Bulletin, CEO Update, New Products/Enhancements, ICD-10 Resource Center, Tips & Tricks, Ask an Expert, and FAQs. The website also includes a new Career Opportunities page and a Media Room that will feature webinar videos, product sheets, and other media content as it becomes available. Visit www.hcim.com to see the website's expanded content and functionality.

The screenshot displays the HCIM corporate website. At the top is a navigation menu with links: HOME, COMPANY, PRODUCTS, SERVICES, CORPORATE BLOG, NEWSROOM, MEDIA ROOM, AFFILIATES, CONTACT. The main header features the HCIM logo and the tagline "HealthCare Information Management, Inc. Turning Complexity into Simplicity™" alongside a photograph of four business professionals. Below the header are four product/service highlights: SymKey®, ScanClaims™, Appeals Manager™, and Services. The "Recent News" section contains a headline: "HealthCare Information Management, Inc. (HCIM) Continues Participation in TriZetto's Certified Service Partner Program" with a sub-headline: "WALNUT CREEK, Calif. – August 19, 2009 – HealthCare Information Management, Inc. (HCIM), a nationally recognized and certified managed care information technology consulting services and software firm, announced today that it has renewed its partnership with The TriZetto Group, Inc. More >>". The footer is divided into several sections: "Subscribe to our Newsletter" with name and email input fields and a submit button; "Company" with links for About Us, Executive Team, and Career Opportunities; "Products" with links for Overview, SymKey®, ScanClaims™, Appeals Manager™, Pay for Performance (P4P), and Product Sheets; "Services" with links for Overview, Implementation / Configuration Services, Operational Consulting Services, and Development Consulting Services; "Corporate Blog" with links for News Bulletin, CEO Update, New, Products/Enhancements, ICD-10 Resource Center, Tips & Tricks, Ask an Expert, and FAQs; "Newsroom" with links for Newsletters, HCIM News, and Photo Album; "Media Room" with links for Affiliates and Contact. The footer also includes the slogan "Solutions through Innovation in Healthcare Operations", the phone number "888-454-0202", the email "info@hcim.com", the copyright notice "Copyright 2009 © HealthCare Information Management, Inc. all rights reserved", and the ZUMABLUE logo.
